Had many great times on the job site with Dean. He was honest dependable and consistently produce high-quality. Clients all love to hang out with him because he had a artsy lighthearted quirkiness that was a extraordinary gifted trait. I was heading out to lunch one day and he asked me if I would bring him back a cola big gulp. I gave it to him when I got back and asked him how he was gonna drink all that and he said it wasn't to drink it was to mix in the concrete to make it bubble up. It was his fine imaginative detail that made our new homes look 100 years old. Dean taught me that customers will seek you out if you exercise innovation imagination and sometimes a little Coca-Cola. My life is better because I knew him thank you for sharing him with us.
