“ As Steve and I were traveling in MT (band days), we saw signs saying to stay in cars if cars broke down. Off to the side was a fence with signs stating to stay away and go back to vehicle. So Steve and I decided to find out why. We stopped the car and climbed on the fence. A MILITARY jeep soon arrived with M16's aimed at us and ordered us to leave. Thank God no blood test were run. Just one of many stories. I love you Steve...RIP
