“ Aaron and I lived on the same street in West Hollywood, FL. during the mid 50's. Our families shared many block party events. Aaron and I also attended McArthur High, and had attended our latest school reunions. He reminded me at our 50th reunion, that I was the first girl he kissed during those early teen years. I'll always remember him as a wonderful young man, football player and gentlemen. I plan to be at your memorial today, with my husband, to bid you farewell to a healthy life in eternity with your wife and family.

“ Aaron was my best friend's father and the last time I was able to spend time with him, we ate delicious sushi. I introduced him to ponzu sauce. We had a wonderful time and laughed ALOT! I'll surely miss him. Love, Lisa Kemp of Las Vegas, Nevada. ❤️🍣🇺🇸🥺
