“ Dear Cindy & Family, I wanted to give your family my condolences. I hate that our enemy death has taken this loved one. I am so very sorry for your loss. I have found the following verses to be soothing to our neighbors going through very difficult times such as you are experiencing. Notice they speak of death being no more: 1 Corinthians 15:26... 'And the last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing.' Additionally, Isaiah 25:8 reads: "He will swallow up (or do away with) death forever....". This one helps me most: (Acts 24:15) And I have hope toward God, which hope these men also look forward to, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous. I wish you peace and comfort at this trying time. My deepest sympathy. Winter Gainey
