“ I will not be able to be there to pay my final respects to you but you have had my respect all my life. From the age of knowing what it meant to have Uncles and Aunts you and Aunt Erma made us (my brothers and I) feel so special and so welcome in your home during those summer vacations and the times we would all meet in Fitzgerald. You always had time for the kids and always joked and teased us. You had a bond with my Dad (your brother) that time, distance, or dementia could not take away. My Dads last days in the nursing home he would talk of you and tell me you had been to visit him that day. From the look of happiness and the light in his eyes I would go along with him and ask him about the visit. He even told me one day that you were taking a tour of the nursing home and was considering moving there. He was absolutely thrilled. I know you are with Aunt Erma and my Dad claiming the reward that you so richly deserve. You have left an example to your sons as to what being a man is all about. Miss you!
