

Adam Jared Clark

September 29, 1983 - June 12, 2022

Adam Jared Clark, 38 of Archer, was taken away from this world on Sunday June 12, 2022. He was the youngest born and raised in North Carolina to Delmer and Sherry Clark.

He worked hard as an equipment operator with dreams to support his family from his own land clearing and site development company. He was a family loving man with his wife Barbara Ann Malachowski and children, son, Eric Malachowski, and Daughter Mellina Lewis.

Always teaching his son how a lady should be treated, he made sure his wife never had to carry anything.

Constantly putting his family first, he would have little time for himself. One only had to ask, and he was there. Helping his father and siblings with any projects they had at them homes, he always put his own on the back burner. Including helping his oldest sister Hope

Clark with her well, his older brother Delmer (Hec) Clark get his camper from another state, or his youngest sister Barbi Waggoner with her roof.

Always cracking a smile around the bonfire after working hard all day, he made the world light up around everyone he was with. When he did take time for himself, he could be found working in the yard at his house with plenty of projects of his own. Always working to better himself and get things ready for the company he wanted to build. On occasion he could be found by the creek fishing or playing a video game online where you could guarantee his call sign was Galactic Donkey.

Adam is also survived by his nieces, Kayla Clark, Nicole Fleming, Grand Nieces, Eliza

Allman, Natalie Allman, and Kayden Fleming. Nephews include, Joshua Casper, Jeremy Casper, Devon Clark, Lakoda Ford, and Brian Fleming.

Adam is and will always be loved and missed by all. A celebration of life will be held at a later date.

“ Getting near the holidays and I miss you so much. Every year feels less like Christmas than the year before without you here. You're the baby of the family and you and mom seem to be the ones that held us all together in some way. I'll always remember watching A Christmas Story on repeat for days. I still watch it every year for you. I even have the lamp now. Until we see each other again, my heart will continue to hold you close.

“ Hey bubba. Coming up on a year of you being gone now. I still don't understand how he can get away with what he did to you. I miss you man. Sitting here playing MWO wondering where my team mate is. I Love You Man. You are ALWAYS missed.

“ Bubba it will be 2 months in 2 days since you were taken from us. I miss you so much. I wish one more day could be spent by the river with a fire. Catfish on the line and beer in the cooler.

“ I remember the times we had and cry. We didn't have enough. You were stolen from us bubba. I miss you so much it is hard to breathe. You were the best little brother anybody ever had. I know people say that a lot when they lose a loved one but they don't know you. I have a job to do now but don't worry about your family. They will be taken care of.

“ I never had a chance to meet Adam, but I work with Barb and I heard all about him and what a wonderful man he was and how good he was to her son Eric. I was devastated to learn about his unexpected and sudden death and knowing how Barb feels about Adam, my heart just broke for her and Eric. My son and I went through the exact tragic events when he was 14 and it was very hard for both of us. However, Barb is a very strong person and I am sure she will help Eric get through this as well as herself. The office isn't the same without Barb's sweet sing-song voice cheerfully greeting everyone good morning. I miss her and hope that she and Eric are being comforted by family and close friends. Sending love and hugs to you and Eric. ~ Staci Packham

“ I remember one time we had gone fishing when mom was alive at a pond back in the woods. Bubba came and had his full but was heading back to the house so mom sent Sandi back with him. Now Sandi was a strong willed little Chihuahua for those who didn't know her that was going to ride on your shoulder. Adam didn't know this and as he was driving off they were fighting over it. He was still going slow so when he hit that big 24" diameter pine that jumped out in front of him they didn't get hurt but he was mad about that big dent in his chrome cattle guard bumper...

“ I work with Barbara, and I haven't known Adam for very long, but from the time that I have, I knew he was "good people". One of the funnier memories is when we went to dinner and Adam was looking forward to the all you can eat crab legs. The place didn't have a cracker for the legs, so it took Adam a while to get those legs cracked open. We were there for a bit, while Adam was working feverously to get some meat out of the legs. He kept apologizing for how long it was taking him to eat. He told the waiter to go ahead and get more plates ready, because he would get there eventually. They brought him several plates, before they brought him a take out box to take the rest home. We laughed all the way home about that night. He kept saying "ya'll can go ahead and leave and go on home, I just ain't leaving until I get my fill". He helped my husband Mike haul a heavy load of furniture to our house and wouldn't take a dime for it. He said, "It's just how I am, I just like doing favors for people, you never know when you might need one". My heart goes out to Barbara and all of his family left behind. He was truly "good people".

“ Adam you are the best thing that ever happened to my Daughter Barbie and her children. Such a blessing to this family and world. You are going to be missed, remembered, and loved by everyone that knew you forever. Thank you LORD for the time that we had Adam in our lives. 🧡 “Bubby, you were too young to leave this world. I will always remember your love for your family. The way you would laugh so hard at yourself and make others laugh right along with you. You would do everything you could to help those you love. The tradition of a Christmas Story always made you so happy. No matter how many times you watched that movie and Happy Gilmore your laugh was infectious. If only we could have you back. I would fry as many taters as you wanted. I love and miss you so much.

I got to work with Adam and his Dad for a few blissful months in Umatilla. They both made the days short and the work fun. They were part of the reasons I enjoyed that job. Adam was always good for a laugh, ready and willing to lend a hand, and knowledgeable of many tasks. My condolences to the family and many friends this young man had. I know the universe has a hole in it right now. I wish I had some advice or a "cure all" that would help right now. My heart goes out to all family and friends, but especially Delmar, who taught me many tricks, and to never take things too seriously. I know you were proud of Adam, and I could see a lot of you in him. He knew you were proud of him too. Adam was a cut up (just like you) and you both made me laugh. I hope everyone in the family can laugh at some of Adam's antics and remember how he taught us all to give of ourselves. God Bless You ALL.
