“ Adam, you were a big boy with your good days and your bad days, you faced life sometimes with courage, sometimes with anger, but I also know that sometimes it was difficult for you to understand why we went through hard things in life, but it is part of it. God will welcome you with open arms and you will have a life without suffering. I will always remember those smiles that made us see how much of a child you were, even if your age was different. All that remains is to say, rest in peace.
