Addison "Lee" Evans, 80, of Leesburg, FL, went to be with the Lord on June 2, 2024, in his hometown. Lee was born on December 1, 1943, to William Fred and Maria Evans. He attended primary school at Lady Lake Elementary and graduated from Leesburg High School in 1961. He proudly served in the United States Air Force for 4 years as a chaplain's assistant. Some time after his military service, Lee obtained an Associate of Arts degree from Lake Sumter Community College. He married the love of his life, Gail Kantor, on April 8th, 1972.

Lee dedicated his life to serving God along-side his family and friends. He worked as a fiber optics cable splicer at Sprint before retiring after 33 years. During that time, Lee and his wife, Gail, oversaw the first Children's Home at First Baptist Church Leesburg from 1985 - 1994, where they cared for over 900 abused or neglected children. After his retirement, Lee served as Director of the Christian Care Center Benevolence Center for 9 years and continued to volunteer there until his passing.

A faithful member of First Baptist Church of Leesburg since 1979, he spent much of his time ministering to others. His service to the Lord included bus ministry, telephone prayer ministry, serving as a Deacon and serving on multiple committees. He was known for his love of golfing, fishing, playing cards, playing scrabble with Gail, and watching sports, especially the Florida

Gators.

Lee is survived by his loving wife, Gail; daughter, Dawn Evans; son, Joseph Evans; daughter, Danna Kessler (husband Brian); grandsons, Nathan & Gavin Kessler; and sister, Trudi Fauchier.

“ My deepest sympathy to the family of Lee Evans. I knew Lee from my youngest age, we played together, always had a fun time. We went through LHS at the same time, graduated the same year. He was the finest of young men, sadly I never saw him again after we graduated from LHS. Thanks for the memories Lee, again, my sincere sympathy to your family.
