“ Adrienne was a wonderful friend that always kept in touch with me. We had many years together in California as young adults and then when I moved away in 1997 we spoke often. Over the years she would be the first person to send me a Christmas card. We never forgot each other's birthdays and tried to keep in touch a few times a year. I will miss her but I know she is with our Heavenly Father and I will see her again. My love and prayers go out to her husband and kids. May they have peace and comfort.
