“ I was fortunate enough to experience growing into adulthood with you. Your smile was contagious there was never a dull moment in any room you stepped in .

Though we grew up and went our ways I always wondered if I ever ran into you again what I'd say to you... It's unfortunate we're here but as I sit and really think , I really would've liked some Beef Steak , for you to remind to where to get the best Tripletas on OBT, to actually race you on a road BESIDES Poinciana Blvd (I could drive now) lol . But all and all it never happened . While I don't want to mourn I want to celebrate you .

I wish I was able to let you know, I'm proud of you . Proud of the father and man you became . Proud of all your accomplishments . YOU MADE IT & you did it doing what you loved to do most ! Dee & Regito you guys are some of the most selfless, upstanding and dedicated parents a child can have . I just want you to know that you both did an amazing job with both your boys . Stay proud, stay strong and keep praying . Akeido is with you always. ♥
