Obituary of Albert D'Anjou

Albert D'Anjou, 79, of Lady Lake, Florida died peacefully on March 6, 2010 after a long illness and with his daughter by his side.

Bert is survived by Betty, his loving wife of 57 years, of Lady Lake, Florida, his daughter Kathy and husband Randy McIntyre of The Villages, Florida, brothers Wilfred and Henry, sisters Rita and Armande and their families. He was predeceased by his brothers; Ernest & Gilles and his parents, Omer and Alida.

Bert and his wife Betty owned and operated Stark General Store in Stark New Hampshire for 8 years, where they worked long hours and enjoyed many friendships. After moving back to the Colebrook area in 1970, Bert worked for the area stores and logging companies. He enjoyed spending time with his family, playing competition pool and snowmobiling during his 16 years there.

Moving to Lake Worth in 1985 brought sunny days and relief for many years from the pain of arthritis, while employed by Goodyear in south Florida. Bert drove north for many summers where he and his wife Betty enjoyed getting together with family and friends.

A memorial service will be held in his honor this summer in Colebrook. In lieu of flowers, please send memorials to the Lane Purcell Hospice House, 2452 CR 526E, Sumterville, Florida, 33585.

“ Betty, Kathy and Randy, I was shocked to hear of Bert's death. I worked with Bert for a long time and had many good times with him and a lot of respect for him. He had a great sense of humor and despite the difference in miles after he moved south always looked forward to seeing him come home in the summer. My thoughts and prayers are with you. Butch
