

Albert J. Allmen

November 9, 1937 - September 24, 2018

Albert J. Allmen

Al was born in Royal Oak, Michigan, and passed away on September 24, 2018 at the age of 80. He leaves behind his wife of 61 years, Charlene Jarman Allmen, daughter Cynthia Bean, her husband Kerry Bean, son Mark Allmen and his wife Carol Chapman, and grandsons Jeremiah Bean and his wife Morgan Bean, and Joshua Bean.

Al and Charlene met in Ferndale high school, raised their family in the Detroit suburb of Allen Park and later relocated to Ann Arbor, MI. Summer vacations were often spent in Northern Michigan. After the kids graduated from college, Al and Charlene began exploring the world, visiting many places including the Taj Mahal in India and the pyramids of Egypt.

Al spent much of his adult life at Wayne State University, first as a student and then as a librarian and part-time faculty. He earned two Master's degrees and loved to be around books.

In 2001 Al and Charlene moved to The Villages, coming to play golf, continue their wine tasting adventures, and find a new church to engage with. They immediately felt at home.

A memorial service will be held on Thursday, October 4, 2018 at 10:00 a.m. at New Covenant United Methodist Church, 3470 Woodbridge Dr., The Villages. Following the service there will a brief committal service in the columbarium and then gathering for snacks and fellowship. In lieu of flowers, the family asks for donations to New Covenant's Endowment Fund or a charity of your choice.

“ I remember Mr. Allmen (as I would have called him then) as a dignified, respectful, gracious man. I often babysat Cindy and Mark when I was in high school. They were well behaved and smart. Bedtime was a quiet time with reading a book. I also remember your family at Camp Wakanda when I was a cook. All good memories of a fine family. My condolences in your loss of Al.

“ Condolences to the Allmen family. Our thoughts and prayers go out to your whole family. Psalms 147:3 says God, "heals the broken hearted, and binds up their wounds." May God bring you comfort and peace.

“ I am so sorry for the passing of Albert, my condolences go to the Allmen's Family. I know too well the pain of losing a loved one in death. What brings me great hope and comfort is God's promise at Revelation 21:4-"And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away" Very soon death will be done away with and we will see our loved ones again I hope this verse comforts you during this difficult
