“ I love and miss you mom. Its been a little over 10 years since we lost you. Im 22 now with a steady full time job and i really hope you're proud of me. I know ive also made mistakes and you've probably seen those to and im sorry. The good thing is ive learned and can continue to keep learning from them. It pains me how little words people have left for you on here because of the amazing woman you were when you put your mind to it and put forth the effort, and the amazing mom you were when you did so. I htipe your up there singing mama. Fly high, i love you.

“ As a retired teacher from SSHS, I would like to offer my sympathy to the family and classmates who are sorrowing over the loss of one they loved. We don't understand why, but we can trust that God has her in the palm of his hand, and we can be very thankful for the blessings and joy that she brought to our lives. Offering prayers for all of you.
