Alexis Crystal Elizabeth Pelham

December 4, 2007 – January 30, 2025

With heavy hearts, we announce the passing of our beloved Alexis Crystal Elizabeth Pelham, who left this world far too soon on January 30, 2025. She was born on December 4, 2007, in Nashville, Tennessee, and in her 17 years, she touched countless lives with her kindness, honesty, and unwavering love for those around her.

Alexis had the rarest of souls—one that was selfless, fearless, and full of life. She always put others first, offering her heart and her strength to anyone in need. There was never a moment when she wouldn't stand up for what she believed in or lend a hand to someone struggling. She had a passion for adventure, loving nothing more than mudding, riding through the woods, and making unforgettable memories with the people she cherished. Her love for children was unmatched, and she had a way of making every little one she met feel special and adored.

Alexis dreamed of becoming a massage therapist, a career that perfectly suited her giving nature. Helping others was her passion, and she was determined to bring comfort and healing to those in need.

She is survived by her loving mother, Carolyn Ehrcke; her brother, Kyle Ehrcke; her grandmother, Elizabeth Branson; and her aunt, Heather Ehrcke. She was deeply loved and will be profoundly missed by her family and countless friends, all of whom were blessed to have known her.

Alexis now joins the loving embrace of those who passed before her: her cherished Aunt Sherry Brown, her grandmother Joanne Leitner, and her grandfather David Leitner. We find peace in knowing they were waiting for her with open arms, welcoming her home as our most precious guardian angel.

Alexis was a light in the lives of everyone she met—an unbreakable spirit, a fierce protector, and a heart so pure it could never be replaced. She was taken from us far too soon, but the love she gave will live on forever in those who were lucky enough to know her.

She is free now, running through the woods she loved, laughing in the wind, and watching over us all.

“ Alexis, I'm going to miss all the bathroom hallway conversations we used to have at school, all the random things we used to talk about, the random ft calls I used to get from you because you always had some sorta TEA TO SPILL with me, you were one of my closet friends, all memories we had made throughout the years we've known each other.. I'm so devastated to find out that God had a different plan for you.. you were like a sister to me, our bond was unforgettable, judgement free, full of love and laughter, we always had each others backs, I'm so incredibly grateful to have been able to have been apart of your journey... you'll always be in my heart and I know your always watching over me from above, I'll continue to keep your name alive.. “ Alexis was such a beautiful young lady, inside and out. Her smile and jokes made even the worst days better. I loved her sweet spirit and her hugs. Her spunk and sass always made for teachable moments which always ended in one of her amazing hugs. She will be forever missed and will always be part of my heart and a cherished member of the Fam-Alee ❤️
