Obituary of Alice Costanzo

Alice M. Costanzo, 72, passed away, peacefully, at her home in The Villages, Florida on Monday, April 28. She was the Beloved wife of Vincent J. Costanzo Jr. She was survived by her four children, Priscilla Hoffert; Robert Egan; Carla Egan; Leah Duffy-Kobus and six grandchildren.

Alice was a long-time resident of Bellport and worked for the Town of Brookhaven before retiring to The Villages, Florida with her husband in 2002. Alice will be profoundly missed by her many friends and family in NY and Florida. She will live forever in our many happy memories of her. Heaven has a new one-of-a-kind angel. May she rest in peace.

Donations in her remembrance can be made to local animal welfare organizations.

“ Dear Mom Thank you for bringing Priscilla into this world and into my life. Since I met you I try to appreciate life every day and I appreciate all positive things even more so because of you. You left an empty space in this world but filled our hearts with fond, warm, and loving memories of ever happy and optimistic angel Alice. Love, your son in law Gaylord. I miss you!

“ My dearest Alice--I was only fortunate to have known you for a year, but you were truly an inspiration in my life and I so enjoyed our talks and Thursday morning breakfasts. You meant the world to so many people. I know you're in a better place and free from the pain you've been tolerating. With much love, Sue

“ I only knew Alice for a few years as her neighbor in The Villages. She was an amazing person with advice I wish I had written down. I will miss her and her laughter always. May she rest in peace and know that she was so loved.

“ I have known Alice most of my life since she babysat my brother and I and in turn I babysat her children. She has four beautiful children who will miss her. I'm glad that she was able to enjoy her last years in the Villages with her husband Vinny. May she rest in peace.
