Obituary of ALICE HAYDEN

Mrs. Alice Whitehouse Hayden, 99, of Eustis passed away Wednesday, December 8, 2010. Born in Springfield, Massachusetts, she moved to West Springfield at age 7, attended schools and lived there until her marriage to the late Orin R. Hayden in 1935. After her marriage the couple moved to Longmeadow, Massachusetts living there for twenty-five years. Mrs. Hayden worked at Friendly Jewelry store and in the office of Haynes Men's Department Store. After her husband retired from Springfield Armory, the couple moved to New Salem, Mass. where they lived twenty-five summers and living in Eustis, Florida twenty-five winters. In 1986 they moved to Eustis permanently. In September of 1991 they moved to Lakeview Terrace retirement community. Mrs. Hayden was a homemaker and she was active in volunteer work throughout her lifetime. She is survived by her nephew, Richard Whitehouse, Glastonbury, CT.
