Time spent with her family was her greatest joy, often filled with laughter from her beloved jokes and treasured stories. She was known for her amazing memory of life's events, birthdays and anniversaries, and loved to reminisce. She carried music in her spirit and, for as long as she was able, found happiness on the dance floor. Her gentle spirit and enduring love will be forever stitched into the hearts of her family.

She is survived by her daughter Annette (Ted) Dunn of Scipio Center NY, granddaughter

Audrey West of Locke, NY, great-granddaughters Olivia and Jenna, Teena Faye and Semaj, two great-great grandsons, family members Les Huskins and Trudy Wise, as well as several nieces, nephews, and cousins.

She was preceded in death by her husband James Clough, her son Stuart Clough, her daughter Charlene Clough, her brother Ceylon Jones, her sister Florence Irene Biviano, and her grandson James "Jamie" Clough.

The family will plan a celebration of life to be held in the spring. Expressions of sympathy,
