Al was a faithful volunteer with the Center Hill Volunteer Fire Department, I knew Al for a number of years and I considered him to be one of the most pleasant man to enjoy holding conversation and time spent with.

We met Allen years ago through his son, Jeremiah & Tiffany. We also attended school with Shirley, his wife. Allen was soft spoken, caring, and loved his family. Our dear friend will be missed. Joy and Arthur Hayes

Allen was a loving and faithful man of God. Him and Shirley are truly prayer warriors who have prayed for my family for many years I appreciate them both so much. Allen has been friends with my parents for a very long time. While they lived in Center Hill and after us kids moved my parents to Clermont. They've remained friends, and I can't express enough how grateful I am for their friendship and help to them. My deepest sympathies go out to the whole family. Allen will be truly missed.
