“ Kaley & Doc, My heart is so saddened to hear about the loss of little Allison. Although I never got to meet her in person, I did get to know her little personality through the many pictures that you took of her. Allison reminded me so much of you Kaley when you were little. Remember to celebrate the time and the memories you had with her while she was here and know that both of you were the best parents she could have ever asked for. Your family is in my thoughts and Prayers. Love, Christy

“ This little baby, in her tiny little frame, and in her tiny little lifetime, inspired so many to be strong and to fight and to endure through illness and pain. She was always sweet. She was always happy. She will continue to inspire us and lead us to appreciate what is truly important. She knew much better than us.
