Obituary of Alun Jones

On January 9, 2017, Alun Michael Jones passed away suddenly in Clermont, Florida. Mr. Jones was born in Barnett, Great Britain in 1939. In his early teens he traveled to Australia with his family where they lived for approximately 7 years during which time he completed his apprenticeship in carpentry and joinery. He then traveled to Canada where he met his wife of 53 years, Nancy Jones. Together they started a family raising three sons, Wayne Michael Jones, Mark David Jones and Ian Alexander Jones. In the late 1970's the family moved to Leesburg, Florida where Alun and Nancy remained long-time residents. Mr. Jones continued his career in construction where he earned a reputation as a builder of custom homes. During his retirement Mr. Jones enjoyed spending time rebuilding the family cottage in Haliburton, Ontario, boating with his family and spending time with his grandchildren. Mr. Jones was an aviation enthusiast who earned his private pilot's license and enjoyed caring for and flying his plane. Alun was beloved by all and will be deeply missed. A memorial service will be held at Byers Funeral Home on Saturday January 14th at 1:00 PM with a public viewing preceding the service at 11:00 AM.

The family invites all of Alun's friends to celebrate his life with them.

“ In life we have many acquaintances, but very few "friends". I can honestly say that Alun Jones and his family are those who I call "friend". Fair wind and following seas my friend.
