“ I can't believe I have now had to watch both you and mom both go to be with Jesus. Even though it makes me happy knowing you're both in no more pain and you're both in the place everyone one day wants to be but I just miss you both dearly grandma. I hope this obituary I wrote makes you proud and tells your life story how you would have wanted it to be told. You have been such an inspiration to me and why I chose the career path that I did because I too love to see recovery in the works. Until we meet again grandma give mom that hug and kiss for me ❤️ I'll see you again one of these days ☐👤
