“ Where are you , Al? Hiking the Plains of Peace? Where rivers run long, Bounding with abundant fish. Casting through the Heavens, Reeling in a glorious catch! Playing checkers with the Angels? Walking into the sunset With a clarinet tucked under your arm? Ready to echo mellow sounds As you walk toward the light of Heaven's rainbow!

“ To The Family of my Pal AL, It has been a pleasure being able to take care of AL . He taught me alot mainly how to just have a friend. We communicated all the time. He loved to fish and play games, and I learned how to be a winner at all cost. Thank you for permitting me to be in his life for all these years and opening up your heart to call me friend. I love you and will always be here if you need a ear. Cause he also taught me how to listen
