“ Steven, Betsi, Everyone, It breaks my heart to write on this page about such a beautiful young girl. There are no words to express the depth of sorrow in my heart for you all. May Amanda find the peace in heaven with our Lord that she was seeking here. II Corinthians 5:6-8 "Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body (the earthly body), we are absent from the Lord (we need the heavenly body to be with him): For we walk by faith, not by sight: We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body (the earthly body), and to be present with the Lord." Find comfort in that knowledge. God Bless and know that you are all in our prayers. With much love, Marybeth (Susie-Mom/Inez-Grandma)

“ I know this pain so well that I would never wish for others to have to live with it, especially those of my family members whom I love and cherish. My heart hurts for Amanda's entire family, her friends, and all whose lives she has touched.

“ Steve, Betsi, Becky, Mike, her brothers and sisters, my heart breaks for you all. We are there with you in spirit sending you love and kisses, our arms wrapped around you giving you huge bear hugs. You had a wonderful daughter, sister, niece and granddaughter in Amanda. I know she loved each and every one of you and would never wanted you to hurt, may you find peace in that she is now happy where she is with God. He is taking wonderful care of her. She loves her God. And we love you all!! RIP Amanda Jones LWith MUCH love, Joseph and Stephanie Hoover

“ Words just can't express my sorrow for your loss. The pain is so overwhelming, the grief is totally consuming, I pray for strength and God's mercy to carry you through this difficult time. Amanda fulfilled God's calling for her to bring so many to Him. He then called her home. She will continue to live on in each of you, her loving family.

“ THERE IS NO PAIN GREATER THAN LOSING A CHILD I HVE BEEN THERE

IRENE HUBERT - October 01, 2014 at 12:00 AM

“ I can't imagine how painful this must be for all of you. The pain from the loss of a child is something all parents should never have to experience. I wish we could have had the chance to know Amanda, I know it would have changed our lives as it has everyone that was ever blessed by her presence. If there is anything that any of you need, know that us Georgia folks are just a phone call away. I want to leave Amanda this prayer: To You, O Lord, we humbly entrust this child, so precious in your sight. Take her into your arms and welcome her into paradise, where there will be no sorrow, no weeping nor pain, but the fullness of peace and joy with Your Son and the Holy Spirit forever and ever. Amen.

“ Nancy, Mike and I saw you when you were pregnant with Amanda at your mom's and Jerry's in Augusta, GA. We saw you again and met Amanda when she was about two at the family reunion in NM. I know it's our loss that distance prevented us from getting to know her better. May God be with you as you rightly lean on others to endure the pain of your loss. Our love and prayers are with you.

“ Amanda, You were sweet, and beautiful. You were caring and kind, yet much to soon you left us behind. Though our hearts are filled with sadness and a wind's begun to blow, you are in our hearts now and always- i hope you know. I know you can see us from Heaven up above and I know you wouldn't want us to be sad, I know in my heart you'd want us to celebrate what life you had. This is not goodbye for you and me, its only 'see ya later' cause one day we'll meet again you see... I miss ya girl... ❤️ Always, Morgan

“ Steve, Betsi and all our Florida Family, I love you, and share your hurt and pain. I was once told by an old South'ren lady.... "God don' give us chil'ren, he only loans 'em to us fer a while". This was affirmed today while going thru moms memorabilia.....I found a clipping she had saved, I'd like to share with you.....The Author is Unknown..... "I'll lend you, for a little while, a child of mine," God said, "For you to love while he lives, It may be six, or seven years or twenty-two or three, "But will you, 'til I call her back, take care of her for me?" "She'll bring her charms to gladden you, and shall her stay be brief, you'll have her lovely memories as solace for your grief." "I cannot promise she will stay, as all from earth return, but there are lessons taught down there I want this child to learn." "I've looked the wide world over in my search for teachers true, and from the throngs that crowd life's lanes, I have selected you." "Now will you give her all your love--not think the labor vain, Nor hate me when I come to call to take her back again," "I fancied that I heard them say, 'Dear Lord, thy will be done.'" "For all the joy this child shall bring, the risk of grief we'll run." "And should the angels call for her much sooner than we planned, we'll brave the bitter grief that comes, and try to understand."
