Obituary of Amos Marchant

Amos V. Marchant, 90, of Leesburg, Florida, was born September 2, 1923 in Chula, Georgia, and went to be with the Lord on Friday, July 25, 2014. Amos moved to Leesburg from Orlando in 1952 and was a graduate of Abraham Baldwin Agricultural College and the University of Georgia. He was a member, Deacon, and Chairman of the Deacon Board of the First Baptist Church of Leesburg. Amos was a retired citrus broker and the owner of Marchant Fruit Company. He loved hunting and fishing and enjoyed traveling. Amos loved the Lord and his faith was a very central part of his life. He was a devoted husband and he loved to put other people first. He was also a good and loving father who doted on his children and grandchildren, almost all of whom traveled from other states for his funeral.

He is survived by his wife Mary Grace Marchant; daughter, Amy Marchant McEwen of Leesburg; sons Craig Douglas Marchant of Thomasville, GA and Jeffrey Frank Marchant of Denver, CO; sister, Rosa Nell Tesney of Vidalia, GA and 5 grandchildren. Visitation will be Monday, July 28 from 3:00 to 5:00 pm at Beyers Funeral Home, Leesburg. Funeral services will be at First Baptist Church Chapel of Leesburg on Tuesday, July 29 at 11:00 AM with Pastor Gary Blanchard officiating. If desired, donations may be made to First Baptist Church of Leesburg or Cornerstone Hospice, 2445 Lane Park Road, Tavares, FL 32778.

“ Amos was one of the finest men I have ever known. Period. He encouraged my wife and myself from the very first. He was one of the most positive and uplifting people I have ever known. He was a true leader in our church and a Christian gentleman that encouraged wherever he went. He will be greatly, greatly missed. According to the promises of our Lord Jesus Christ, today he is enjoying such a great reward for a life well lived for His glory. Amos you will bemissed my friend.
