After graduating high school at Mary wood High School in Evanston IL in 1970, she married her high school sweetheart and had two children who she loved dearly, in the mid 70's she became a talented wedding and portrait photographer, devoting many years to capturing the beauty of life through her lens.

Surpassing her passion for photography was spending time with her loved ones, she carried her pictures of her children, grandchildren, her siblings and her beloved dogs at all times with great pride and adoration. She treasured her Polish heritage and making her family recipes for family, friends and fellow parishioners at Chapel Christian Faith. Amy adored sharing a dance with many friends and family over the years, and was known to light up the room with her bright spirit. She had a special way of telling her family "I love you" in Polish, a term of endearment passed down by her father.

At home, Amy enjoyed spending time with her best friend and loving companion, Charles C Baker, and her four loyal and loving dogs. She loved those dear to her very deeply, and will be remembered for her heart, her infectious personality and her zest for life by all that knew her.
