“ I had the pleasure of meeting Amy at Grand Island resort. We met at the pool one day as strangers but spent the entire day talking and laughing. As we ran out of sunshine she suggested that we take a four-wheeler ride through the surrounding woods. I joined her and we had a blast! After that first day, we became friends and hung out at the park, went out boating with her sister Lisa and Bryan, we ran some errands together around town, or sometimes watch funny videos at the house. I can tell you that she loved her family very much, and often spoke highly of Lindsay and her grandson Xander. And I do mean often! I will miss her smile, her spirit, her intelligence, beauty, and laughter. I will miss you Amy. I know you loved your rest, so rest in peace now. Just rest. God bless all of Amy's family! Sincerely, Douglas Sherwood & Leo(rip)
