“ I've known Nell since 1981 and she was a huge part of my life. She was my best friend's mother and also my friend When my mother died in 1993, Nell was like a mother to me. For 18 years I lived two houses down from Nell and I'd walk over to visit her. We'd watch TV & work on crafts. I was went to wonderful dinners and cookouts at her house. Nell had a cheerful and giving personality and it was fun to tease her just a little bit! Nights we'd be playing dice and she'd get stuck and cry out Holy Christopher!!! And then she'd laugh with us about it with us. Anytime I see yarn I think of Nell. She used it in her plastic canvas projects and when she'd crochet. She ALWAYS had a project she was working on. I'm blessed to have several of the things she made and I will treasure them always. I am blessed to have so many wonderful, loving memories of Nell. Though I miss her, I rejoice that she has come into her inheritance as a child of God and is with Our Father in Heaven.

“ To the family of Ms. Angelina Dubree please accept my condolences. We are all touched by the loss of a loved one. At times like these I like to turn to the bible for comfort. The scripture at 2 Cor. 1:2,3 calls Jehovah the God of all comfort. May his love surround you at this time. I look forward to the fulfillment of the scripture at Isaiah 33:24 when no one will say I am sick. Also Rev. 21:3,4 when death will be no more! I hope these scriptures bring you a measure of comfort and hope. By visiting jw.org you will find even more encouraging words along with ways to cope with grief. Again, I am so sorry for your loss.
