“ As Robbie mentioned, Aunt Angie was one of the kindest people. I really got to know her when I was in college in Jacksonville, IL, and living with my grandparents. She went out of her way to be kind to a poor college student. She made sure to keep in touch with me over the years to let me know she hadn't forgotten me. When my family was in Florida she cooked a wonderful meal for us. She also helped out when my grandfather was dying from cancer. She was always willing to lend a helping hand. She will be missed.

“ My Aunt Angie was one of the kindest people I have known. Always concerned for others' comfort and took pure joy in creating delicious meals for those she loved. Even as a child, she showed true interest in what was happening in my world. Even though she married into the family, she adopted us and treated us as her own. I am very sad that I wasn't aware of her passing until after the funeral but her memory will live with us forever.
