

Angeline Marie Hoyt

November 30, 1967 - February 4, 2026

Angeline M. Hoyt, 58, formerly of Potsdam, New York, and most recently of Leesburg, Florida, passed away unexpectedly on Wednesday, February 4, 2026 at home with family by her side. She was deeply loved, fiercely loyal, and will be missed more than words can fully express.

Angeline was loving, strong, opinionated, incredibly funny, and loved to read. She had a sharp sense of humor, a big personality, and a way of saying exactly what she thought – often making people laugh while doing it. She was unapologetically herself, and those who knew her wouldn't have wanted her any other way.

Angeline dedicated much of her life to caring for others through her work as a nurse. Compassionate and hardworking, she brought the same strength, honesty, and heart to her profession that she did to her family.

Family was the center of Angeline's world. She was a devoted mother who loved her children fiercely and without limits, always putting them first and standing firmly in their corner.

She is survived by her spouse, Donald Hoyt; her children, Brielle Frary, Evan Hoyt (Adrienne Maniscalco), Jessica Hoyt; her brother, Thomas LaBaff, her sister, Liane Bourdeaux (JP Bourdeaux), her niece, Kirstie Bourdeaux, her nephew, Ayden LaBaff, and her grandchildren, Brilynn Murray and Cullen Murray.

She is predeceased by her parents, Shirley LaBaff and Roy LaBaff.

Angeline leaves behind a legacy of love, strength, laughter, and deep family bonds. Though she is no longer physically present, her voice, her humor, and her love will live on in the hearts of those who knew her best.
