“ Dear Captain Jeff and family,
I am recalling Anita through phone conversations at Barnett Bank and Pine Meadows, and a great birthday party by the lake years ago.
I didn't know her well, but remember her as a fine and fun lady.
I know she now rests in the sweet arms of Jesus.
With sadness,
Caryl

“ Aunt Anita was the definition of a tough and determined person. She took life's good and bad and made it into a life. I think she was my mother's favorite. Heaven is having one h*ll of a reunion.

“ Dear Anita and Family,

Just wanted to share that my brother Bill and I have always marveled at the courage and determination that Aunt Anita always displayed. She was the child of Hattie and William Lewis and as my mother Eileen would describe it, Anita was always the free spirit the group. She defied.

We all knew that with Aunt Anita she was, first, last, and always, about her children. She'd walk through fire and back again for them. She once told Bill, after he had lost his job, that he was welcome to come down and live on her property. During our mother Eileen's terminal illness Aunt Anita was a rock of comfort to us. She gave more than she took.

Neither of us got to spend much time with Anita but we were family none the less. Herbie, Paige, Theresa, Jeff, and Julie we send our love and prayers.
