

Ann C. Carmichael

May 13, 1933 - July 13, 2019

Ann Crawford Carmichael, 86, of Leesburg, passed away Saturday, July 13, 2019 around her family. Ann was born in Shady Dale, Georgia, though most of her young life was lived in Madison, Georgia. She and her family moved to Leesburg in 1961 where she took up one of her great loves of being a homemaker, raising her children. Later, she would take the role of President in the family business, Shady Brook Golf and RV Resort in Sumterville, FL. Ann was best known for her love and service to Jesus Christ and his church. She was a long time member of First Baptist Church in Leesburg. The family remembers that the very first day the church sanctuary opened for services, Weyman and Ann joined the church. Ann devoted herself to teaching Sunday School (over 50 years) and facilitating in other Bible studies. She also loved to sing in the choir and be a part of various committees for the church.

Ann is survived by her children, Elaine (Andrew) Buzzerd of Bushnell, Dee Ann (Jack) Williams of Leesburg, John Crawford (Tia) Carmichael of Leesburg and James Carmichael of Leesburg; She was also blessed with 9 grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren; Ann is also survived by her brother, Robert D. Crawford of Madison, GA. She was preceded in death by her husband of 44 years, Weyman Liston Carmichael Jr. and their son, Weyman Liston Carmichael III "Chip."

A celebration of Ann's life will be held Saturday, July 20 at 11 am at First Baptist Church, Leesburg in the sanctuary. A private burial will follow at a later time. Arrangements entrusted to Beyers Funeral Home, Leesburg. Online condolences may be left at www.beyersfuneralhome.com