

Ann-Marie Sokolowski

May 15, 1939 - October 2, 2025

Ann-Marie Sokolowski of 3819 St Emma Ct, Leesburg FL 34748, a cherished mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and friend, died in faith on October 2, 2025, at the age of 86.

Born on May 15, 1939, Ann-Marie was married to John J Sokolowski from New Britain, CT who recently passed on May 10, 2025. They were married November 5, 1960, for 64 years.

Ann-Marie began a career as a legal secretary for the private practice of Governor Abe Ribicoff and simultaneously performed as a professional singer. She made her television debut on CBS Studios, "Name that Tune," where she performed and participated as a contestant. She received a full-time contract to sing for the studio but politely declined in order to devote herself to her future husband and family. Ann-Marie and John were home builders and she established herself as a professional decorator through those endeavors. Ann-Marie and John started a number of businesses but finally found their niche in "The Floor Shoppe and Decorating Center" in Bristol, CT.

Ann-Marie's greatest joy, however, was her family. She was a devoted mother to her two children, Lauri Fink and John Sokolowski Jr, who remember her as a nurturing and supportive presence in their lives. She took immense pride in her role as a grandmother to her five grandchildren, Ashley Hecker, John Sokolowski III, Paul Vinci, Daniel Sokolowski and Luke Vinci, showering them with affection, wisdom, and wonderful adventures that only a loving grandmother could foster. Ann-Marie is also survived by 12 great-grandchildren.

Ann-Marie was a follower of Jesus Christ for much of her life and was quick to speak of her faith to others to edify, encourage and exhort them in like manner. Ann-Marie currently resides in Glory next to John and worships at the Throne of Jesus Christ.

Ann-Marie's memorial will be private and only with close family. In lieu of flowers or gifts the family would kindly ask that you offer your prayers in support of grieving the loss of our beloved Ann-Marie.

“ I met Annmarie and Jonh at a time when I had taken a year off to recover from grief, and dealing with great loss. I wasn't even sure that I was ready to go back to work. The day that Annmarie open her door I knew I was supposed to be there. I truly believe God wanted me to meet them. In the time that I was with them both, I saw a couple who adored each other . John talked about his faith and was very caring to his beautiful wife even though he was suffering from Cancer. After John passed I was able to be with Annmarie and she shared so many beautiful memories of her family, even her childhood, along with watching murder she wrote and Little house on the prairie. I was honored to be with Annmarie till it was time for her to receive her wings. Just when I was afraid that my journey doing hospice care was over, God opened the door once again. I am truly thankful ! Annmarie is now resting in the arms of the Lord and rejoicing with her loved ones that she has missed so much, especially her dear Husband John. Fly high Annmarie thank you for being my friend.

Our dear sister-in-law, Ann Marie, was always a sharing and caring person. We had a thousand phone calls, back and forth to each other-I cherish them always.

Before I went to Moscow, Russia, to work at the American Embassy, she called and said "you must take this book with you-" Jesus Calling"...,, this dear woman overnighted it to me before I left the US. It became a part of my life...I still have it, I always will. God love her and keep her with her love forever, John.
