“ Am so very sorry to hear of Ms. Ann's passing. It is very difficult to lose one's Mom. She loved the Lord, her church family, and often shared her ability to play the piano with residents of the nursing homes where we conducted "church" each week. R. I. P. Ms. Ann.

“ So sorry for the family's loss. Ms. Ann was such a sweet and kind lady. She made adjustments to my daughter's prom, wedding and bridesmaid dresses. May she rest in peace. 🙏

Miss Ann was a great influence in my life. She helped me learn to sew more advanced patterns, led the Young Women's Auxilliary and my White Bible Ceremony, allowed me to stay with her family while my parents were out of town, hosted a pre-wedding reception in my honor, remade my wedding dress so that it was like the one I envisioned, helped choose the fabric for the bridesmaid dresses and made them all, directed our wedding, hosted dinners and luncheons for all occasions, and made more outfits for me than I can remember. She was a great friend to both of our mothers, checking on them regularly, making clothes for them, and entertaining with them. She was fun to be around and obviously enjoyed life. I loved her like an aunt. She will be greatly missed. Margaret (Gatlin) and Dale Smith
