“ Yesterday, you were laid to rest next to Dad Together again and for all time Although vowed "til death do we part" it has not Your memories will burn brightly and illuminate our darkest days just as they always have .. I love you both Thank you for being my Parents, my mentors, my strength, and most importantly...my friends. Until we meet again in God's great mystery...farewell Eddie

“ Annie, you were my sister in law for a long time (47 years). We had many good times together. I especially remember family get togethers and reunions and, of course, our trip to Scotland. How we laughed till tears rolled down our cheeks at the infamous fish and chips place! You are loved and will be missed by all of us. I am glad you are no longer in pain and can be with Ed once again.

“ Wasn't going to do this...but what the heck....girls are allowed to change their minds. As bad as it was that Dad left, you and I had the last year to form a new relationship. I will forever treasure that time together. I will ALWAYS love and miss you. I'm grateful for the time we had, and the FUN we had at Christmas!!!! Travel safe, be well, give Dad a kiss and enjoy this next journey with him as much as you did the last. Love you. Jeanne

“ My big sister, Anna Mae, will always be in my heart as the substitute mother she was to me for a large part of my life. Early on she gave me a refuge and a home when I was without one. Later in life we enjoyed each other's company, especially on our trip to Scotland, which I was glad we were able to make together. Although we were never able to agree on politics, I loved her very much and will miss her always.

“ My dear Mother ... Where do I begin to thank you for all you've meant, and done for me? You were my heart, my strength, and my truest friend..I will miss you with every breath I take but, I know you're in a far better place, and your Earthly pain has now become eternal peace / rest..Saying "I love you" Mom does not do justice to the place you held in my heart, and soul ..Thank you for my life Mom for without you and Dad, God only knows what fate would have befallen me. Gods Speed Mom ...May flights of angels sing thee to they rest ..Until we meet again Farewell my friend...I will carry you with me always Your Loving Son Eddie

“ Grandma, you and grandpa will be dancing at my wedding this year. I may not be able to see it, but I know you will be right there with me. I love you so much, and I'm glad Grandpa has his beautiful bride with him once again. He has missed you. We will miss you. I will see you again Grandma. I love you so much. Thanks for everything you have ever taught me. And remember to watch Day's of Our Lives. nicko
