“ You were a fantastic Grandmother and I know the girls will never forget the wonderful things you and the family shared. They will keep those memories with them until you meet again. Jim is one of the greatest examples of a father and a son anyone could ask for. and I am sure he made you proud to be his mother. May you rest in peace my Friend . We send out heartfelt condolences to your lovely family.

“ Our prayers and thought are with you. Anne and I met on POGO playing Gin and Canasta ,We would get in a game of gin and talk for hours, she was a lovely person to talk to and she always told me she had a hard time to win from me, but we enjoyed our games. Remember the good times as I am sure there are many, Bob. Shelah And Edward Rafuse
