“ Grandma, after thirty years of waiting you are finally reunited with Grandpa. Traci and I were so happy to spend some time with you late last year. You always were sure to put your make up on and get nicely dressed every day....and even carry your purse!! May you be at peace and joy and happiness with those who have passed before you. Please tell my sister Cindy I said hello! You have always been loved and you will always be missed!!

“ We always enjoyed seeing Ann at Jeannette's house. She was always impeccably dressed with hair and make up just so. We loved hearing her stories of the old days in the Chicago area. She was a spunky lady who will be missed. I know it will be especially hard for Jeannette to come back to an empty house. Prayers and condolences to all the family from Village friends.
