“ I worked at the assisted living where Arthur lived and can say he was one of my favorites. He had an infectious joie de vivre and loved talking about his adventures. He frequently stopped by my office to share a joke or just to chat, and he was always a delight. To look at him, with his thick silver full head of hair, that wrinkle-free complexion, with the sparkle in his eyes, and those crazy great big earrings, no one would guess he was 100 years old. Several months ago we were talking about my upcoming cruise (my first). As he told me about his cruising experiences, I caught myself thinking he would be a delightful travel partner and realized I was flirting with him. But, if you know Arther, that doesn't surprise you. He was charming. I miss him already.

“ Arthur Burke was one of my favorite persons in the entire world. Always upbeat and full of energy ..... laughing and joyful. We all should emulate his demeanor. The world will miss him mightily, but God will love having him present with him.
