

Arthur C. Damiano

September 30, 1931 - May 23, 2026

Arthur C. Damiano, known lovingly to family and friends as Art, passed away on May 23, 2026 at the age of 94. He was at home in Summerfield, Florida, surrounded by family and Cornerstone Hospice. Born September 30, 1931, in Newark, New Jersey, he lived a long and faithful life marked by his hard work, devotion to his family and friends, service to his church, and a warm sense of humor that endeared him to many.

Art was the son of the late Arthur O. Damiano and Anna Scala Damiano. He was also preceded by death by his two brothers, Joseph and Donald Damiano and his sister Joan Gillease. He carried the values of his upbringing throughout his life. Those who knew him remember a man who was kind, funny, and loving, and had a way of making others feel welcomed and at ease.

In his early years Art worked for General Motors. He went on to pursue a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Business at Northern Arizona University in Flagstaff. After returning to New Jersey, he worked for several years as a plant manager. Following his marriage to his wife Dianne (Dahlberg) Damiano, they moved to the Atlanta area where they opened their own business.

Art always found a way to serve his local church. After their retirement and move to Florida, Art was active at North Lake Presbyterian Church. While serving he often joked, "It was the least I could do. If I could have done anything less, I would have done that." Those words reflected his sense of humor.

Art was very handy. He enjoyed fixing and improving things. He will be remembered for his straight forward approach, his kindness and humor; but most of all Art was a man of integrity. His friends and family will forever cherish the memories of his laughter, his practical wisdom, and the example he set by the way he lived his life.

Though he is no longer with us, his legacy of love, service, and faith will continue in the hearts of those who knew him. May he rest in the peace of Christ and may those who mourn be comforted by the assurance of God's eternal care.
