Obituary of Arthur Davis

Arthur Allen Davis was born to Alexander and Anna Hipkins Davis (both deceased) a very close and loving family, he was the second oldest of five children. He was educated in the DC public school system and after completing high school, decided to serve his country. He enlisted into the United States Air force and after four years was discharged with an honorable discharge. He also served in the Air Force Reserves until 1962. Arthur had a very extensive career being employed by the U.S. Government Printing Office, the U.S. Postal Service and retiring from the General Services Administration. He received his Masters Degree of Human Services from Lincoln University. Arthur was a people person to the highest degree and often said he has never met a stranger. He was an intelligent and well-spoken man with a great sense of humor and style. Whatever the occasion you could always count on Arthur arriving dressed to the nines. He was colored coordinated and meticulously groomed. The ladies also found Arthur and his charisma to be a little easy on the eyes. We believe that the world was a better place because he was here. Arthur made his transition on October 29, 2013 and leaves to celebrate his life and memory his wife: Phyllis, a son: Avery Davis, brother: Albert Davis, sister: Ruby Davis-Jett (Larry), play-daughter: Gretchen Graves, companion: Carol Abrams, friend: Allennita Cooks and brothers Alexander Davis and Maurice Davis whom preceded him in death and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and dear friends.
