Obituary of Audett Canter

Audett Canter was born in Martin, Tennessee to Carlos A. and Lerah Baker Tutor on October 3, 1924. She attended school in Wyandotte, Michigan and was married to Andrew Canter on May 16, 1942 in Ecorse, Michigan. Audett worked as a "Rosey the Riveter" in Detroit, Michigan during World War II. She and her beloved husband, known by his family and friends as "Cricket," moved to Leesburg, Florida in 1946. Audett owned dress shops and worked in real estate at Ogden & Associates for 29 years, serving on the Leesburg Board of Realtors as Treasurer, Secretary, and eventually President. She was honored by her peers when she was selected to serve as the multiple listing Chairman on state and national realtor committees.

An avid traveler, Audett visited more than 35 countries. She was a devout Christian and an active member of the South 14th Street Church of Christ since 1957, where she was involved with "Flower Power" and numerous other church committees. Her husband, Andrew, passed away in 1998. She is survived by her sister Joey Kimmel (Vic); nieces Diana Raley (Ray), Shelia Garrett, Dawn Kimmel Roberts (John); nephews Dick Faunda (Kay), Jack Kimmel (Tammy); as well as great-nephews, nieces, cousins and their families.
