

Audrey Jane Legg Yacuzzo

January 21, 1933 - July 20, 2025

Audrey Jane Legg Yacuzzo, a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, and faithful servant of the Lord, passed away on July 20, 2025.

A proud member of St. Lawrence Catholic Church in Bushnell, Audrey was a devout Catholic who deeply loved the Lord. She was often found sharing God's word, encouraging others to open their hearts to His love. In her younger years, Audrey volunteered with church youth groups and Little League teams, always dedicating herself to her community.

Audrey was the heart and soul of Quality Welding Services in St. Catherine, Florida, a business she owned and operated with her beloved husband.

Though she was never able to bake a perfect loaf of bread, she could change a tire or replace a radiator fan clutch without hesitation.

Audrey will be remembered most for her strength, service, and love that touched generations.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Michael Yacuzzo, her sons, Salvatore Yacuzzo, Michael Yacuzzo Jr., Charles Yacuzzo, and her granddaughter, Jessica Yacuzzo.

Audrey is survived by her loving daughter, Margaret "Peggy" Yacuzzo Burns (Chris), as well as 15 grandchildren, 24 great-grandchildren, and 3 great-great-grandchildren—who will never forget the love she brought into their lives.

A service will be held at Purcell Chapel on August 8, 2025 at 11am. In Lieu of: Memorial contributions may be made to the daughter, Margaret "Peggy" Burns to help with the funeral expenses. Condolences may be sent to
