June 29, 1944 - October 15, 2011

Obituary of Avis Williams

Avis Nicholson Williams, 67, of The Villages died Saturday, October 15, 2011.

Mrs. Williams was born on June 29, 1944 near Philadelphia, PA, grew up in McKeesport, PA, graduated Penn State with a BS degree, and taught in Pennsylvania schools. She moved to the Washington DC area in 1969, married, and received her Masters degree in Education in Counseling from George Mason University in Virginia and Post Masters certificate in Family Therapy from Catholic University in DC. She is the author of two books "A Women's Guide to Getting Ahead" and the "Professional and Trade Association Job Finder." As a Licensed Professional Counselor and Marriage and Family Therapy Counselor in Virginia she worked for several counseling firms and provided independent counseling services. She was a member of Mensa, PEO, and enjoyed traveling, reading, and assisting women in their time of need.

She is survived by husband Edmund A. Williams, 72, of The Villages.

A memorial service will be held on October 23 at Beyers Funeral Home Chapel, (St. Alban's Anglican Church), Lady Lake during the morning service.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to St. Alban's Anglican Church, 1423 Pelican Path, The Villages, Fl. 32162.

“ Avis always thought we were nuts, and she was right. She was amazed at the dogs chasing the cat through the house and up on to his 8' exercise tree. In fact, it was therapy for Avis, who was such a professional and caring person who needed a nutty alternative periodically to decompress. I'm glad we could provide that and friendship for you both.
