“ Angels by Unknown Author The sky is filled with Angels With puffy lacy wings The remnants of God's beauty With treasures they now bring Each one of them a Guardian That travels in the sky To watch throughout eternity Their parents from on high Smiles that come from Angels They fall like crystal rain Eases earthly burdens Lifting all life's pain Halos so astounding That glitter gold each day Following their loved ones In such a perfect way Wings in gentle breezes That fall from up above Kissing every parent With everlasting love Angels soar through heaven With everlasting light Looking down from heaven Saying their "goodnights" Kissing all who loved them So gently on the face This life's tender mercy Each parent can embrace Wings and shiny halos Travel from on high Surrounding all their loved ones They never say good-by

“ Dear Child in Heaven You were a blessing to us all, you were a special child, and were so glad God sent you to be with us for a while. You filled our home with happiness, and made our life complete. The time we had with you was far too short, but oh so sweet. Some things we don't find easy to accept or understand, till we realize they're part of Our Creators perfect plan. Now it comforts us to know you're with the angels up above, while in our hearts we hold you close surrounded always by our love.
