Barbara "Granny" Lois Cook, 79, of Groveland, Florida passed away in Leesburg, Florida on September 17, 2025 surrounded by her loving family.

Barbara was born on November 16, 1945 in Dursley, England and came to the US when she was two. Her family moved to Leesburg and she was a lifelong resident. She attended local schools and after her marriage to Wendell Cook she worked with him at their nursery for over 35 years. She became the nursery's designer and could visualize landscape and garden and sprinkler layouts for clients. Barbara always had a "huge" garden and canned many of the vegetables and fruit she raised. She loved General Hospital, cooking for her family, reading and most of all her pups, Sam and Bandit. She will be remembered by generations for her famous Banana Pudding.

She is survived by her children; Shelly (Jeff) Robbins, Billy (Robin) Cottle and Katie Cook; her cherished grandchildren Samantha-Jo Pickett, Meagan Robbins, Wade Robbins, Kayla Cottle, Billie Cottle and Wayne Steelman; her precious great-grandchildren Alexeia Williamson, Mark "Peanut" Adcock, Orion Pickett, Bailey Slayton, and Aria Smith; her sisters Caroline Migliavacca and Jennifer Durden and her brother Paul (Jan) Howard; and several other step-children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren, nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her sister Genene Jenkins.
