Obituary of Barbara Dawson

Barbara Ann Dawson, 69, Lady Lake, FL passed away on Saturday, August 15, 2015. She was born in Nuremberg, Germany the first American born after World War II.

Barbara was a wonderful wife, sibling, aunt, and friend. She loved to cook and every meal she prepared was made with love. Some of the things she loved to make were cookies in the shape of leaves. She was known for her Jalapeno jelly and cheese straws. There were so many other specialty items she loved to make that made the holidays so special.

Barbara had a place in her heart for animals like Little Mrs. Do Little. She raised two robins that fell out of the nest and she watched them fly up into the skies of blue.

She found a newborn squirrel in her yard and raised him till she was able to released him back into the wild. To this day he returns daily for his peanuts. The animals knew she had a heart of gold.

Mrs. Barbara Ann Dawson is survived by her husband Brian A. B. Dawson retired

Air force and her brothers Monte Loeb, Donald Loeb and sister Linda Fielding. Barbara & Brian traveled the World with the Air Force and retired to Water Oak in Lady Lake in 2004.

When people use words to describe Barbara the same phrase is repeated "She was the nicest person I ever met". God Bless You

A celebration of life will be held at the Water Oak country club Main Club House

“ It saddened me greatly to return from out of town and find that Mrs. Dawson had passed. I enjoyed our talks each time she visited the clinic, especially those about the antics of our African gray parrots. Prayers for all the family and friends missing this lovely lady. There is one more beautiful rose in God's garden.
