“ To Dorice and John, I was so sorry to hear about the death of Barbara. She was such a special lady. Even though she was my aunt by marriage, she was so very special to me. Having known her since 1969 when she married Harold, I feel like she was in my life for a long long time. I wish I could have attended the services for her and seen you both in person. Thank you for getting in touch to let me know. Heaven has gained an angel and a wonderful lady. May she rest in peace and watch down on all of us from above. My prayers are with you both. Please keep in touch. Love , Gail Martin Brabson

“ FOR BARBARA If you leave us Let the saints call you On the day We bless our mothers For nothing is as deep Or enduring as the love You bring to us Beyond our frail lives Our faltering steps We are blessed by your love Three candles lit In St Patrick's Cathedral For you And the two lives you brought To this world While the candles burn The flame never dies
