“ *Dearest Bill,
We are beyond heartbroken, at your profound loss, of our beloved Barbara. Losing her, won't seem real, for a long time. We consider her to have been more than a treasured friend. She was like a sister, to us. There never has been a more devoted, caring, fun-loving person, to have graced our lives. How thankful we are, that you came into her life, when she really needed you and showed her limitless love and support. You are dear to us! We pray for your strength and peace. Our heartfelt sympathies, Teena & Steve Newman*
