“ Dear Miriam and Lew, I was so sorry to hear of Barbara's sudden passing. My children and I send our sincere prayers and condolences to you and your Family for your great loss. Barbara was a very special person who quietly kept her superior intellect and concern for others out of sight until they were needed. Then her articulate responses were direct, insightful, sincere, and her beneficial advice was right on the money and greatly appreciated...she will be missed by all.

“ Dearest Miriam and Lew, I know that Barbara was a precious spirit in your lives, I love this poem found in an old English Church. What is Dying? A ship sails and I stand..watching till she fades on the horizon and someone at my side says, "She is gone," Gone where? Gone from my sight that is all; she is just as large as when I saw her. The diminished size, and toatal loss of sight is in me, not in her, and just at the moment when someone at my side says "She is gone, There are others who are watching her coming, and other voices take up a glad shout, "There she come!" and that is dying. Bishop Brent Be well and know that ya loved and cared for, may the kind words, thoughts and love from family and friends, be a healing balm on your hearts and spirits. love, care and friendship Lee Gray
