“ Lord, please take care Barbara. She went through h with her marriage. A husband that had no respect for her and just threw her Ashes wherever he had used her for her money, guess her money and the job she had when they first met. Nick is a leech, he will sweet. Talk to you and then s* y ? And then what do you expect from a person that threw his mother out of the house and if I wasn't around, she would have been homeless at 90, he is the scum of the Earth. Yes, and I said it I'm his brother and I hate him so much for doing what he has done. To people he asked for his mother to come down She comes down, he throws her out of his house. I spent my retirement to take care of my mother and I really don't mind. Barbara went through hell. She was always under thumb by that husband of hers. My heart goes up to her. I hope God wraps his arms around her and tell her now. She's safe, she has no fears. He will protect her against satan that she had lived with God. Bless you, Barber, you're the best. It's your shame you're ended up. We're the worst person of this earth
