Obituary of BARBARA TREFETHEN

Mrs. Barbara Trefethen, 87, passed away peacefully on March 16, 2013 in Tavares, Florida. She was born in 1926 in Ellsworth, Maine, the child of the late Agnes and John Grey. She was married to the late Ernest Trefethen. Barbara was a graduate of Brewer High School and worked many years for Sears in downtown Bangor as credit manager. She also went into business with her late husband and started American Heritage Real Estate in Bangor. Her biggest passion was, however, Calvary Baptist Church in Brewer where she volunteered her time for many years. She is survived by her son, Rickey Trefethen of Tavares, FL; and two sisters, Bernice Ireland and Beryl Marsh, both of Brewer, Maine, as well as numerous grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

Services

In accordance with her wishes, there will be a private service in the Spring.
